

Prevailing Wage Statement

All printing services offered in response to this solicitation shall be performed by employees receiving the prevailing wage rate and working under conditions prevalent in the locality where the contract is to be performed. Any respondent whose employees receive less than such prevailing wage rate, or work under less favorable conditions than those prevalent in the locality, shall not be considered to be a responsive bidder.

The Director of the Illinois Department of Labor shall determine prevailing wages and working conditions. Questions regarding prevailing wages and working conditions can be addressed to the Department of Labor at (217) 782-1710.

By affixing an authorized signature below, the vendor certifies compliance with the above prevailing wage requirements. Failure to sign this provision may result in your offer being considered non-responsive to this solicitation.

Signed:

Authorized Signature

Phillip T. Martin
Printed Name

Martin One Source
Vendor Name

Date: 2/22/22

Soybean or Vegetable Oil-Based Ink Statement

All offset printing services offered in response to this solicitation must use soybean oil-based ink or vegetable oil-based ink.

Does your quote include soybean oil-based ink? Yes No
Does your quote include vegetable oil-based ink? Yes No

If no, please explain fully below:

Running digital - more cost effective

Signed:

Authorized Signature

Phillip T. Martin

Printed Name

Martin One Source

Vendor Name

Date: 2/22/22